The Muriel Duckworth Memorial Bursary

The Nova Scotia Federation of Labour in partnership with Higgins General Insurance is pleased to offer its seventh annual bursary in the amount of $1000.00. This bursary will be offered to a full-time student who will be attending university or trade school/community college for the first time or as a returning student. The bursary is in the name of Muriel Duckworth, who for 60 years, worked as a tireless crusader and advocate for social justice and change. Muriel was involved with numerous organizations supporting peace initiatives, social reform and educational development in Nova Scotia and across Canada. Muriel played an integral role in the evolution and development of Canadian women's social and peace movements on local, provincial and national levels. Sometimes her role included that of singer in the well-known protest group "The Raging Grannies" who were the highlight of many rallies and demonstrations over the years. Sister Duckworth died in 2009, at the age of 100.

The basis of this bursary shall be the applicant's financial need and current and ongoing volunteerism/social activism in his/her community. Please complete the form on both sides.

Only sons or daughters of active union members or the union members themselves, whose union local is affiliated and in good standing with the Federation are eligible to apply for this bursary:
